DI.3. Final meeting report

Executive Summary

Date: 15-16 June 2023

Location: Sicily, Italy

Introduction:

The final project meeting for the "GoOutThere! Outdoor Challenge" project, with the project ID 101050672, was held in Sicily, Italy, on the 15th and 16th of June 2023. This meeting marked the closure of the project and aimed to discuss the final report, project outcomes, and future recommendations. The meeting brought together representatives from all partner organizations involved in the project.

Project Closure and Final Report Discussion:

- Recap of Project Activities:

The participants began the meeting by recapping the activities implemented throughout the project duration. They highlighted the successful execution of interactive, location-based outdoor adventures and challenges, known as "Actionbounds." The project focused on customizing these activities, incorporating GPS coordinates, QR codes, photos, videos, and audio recordings.

- Sustainability and Use of Actionbounds:

The meeting emphasized the digital nature of rewards and the participant registration system, including the Map, GeoTags, and Achievement Badges. Participants discussed how these elements contribute to the lasting and sustainable use of Actionbounds beyond the project's completion.

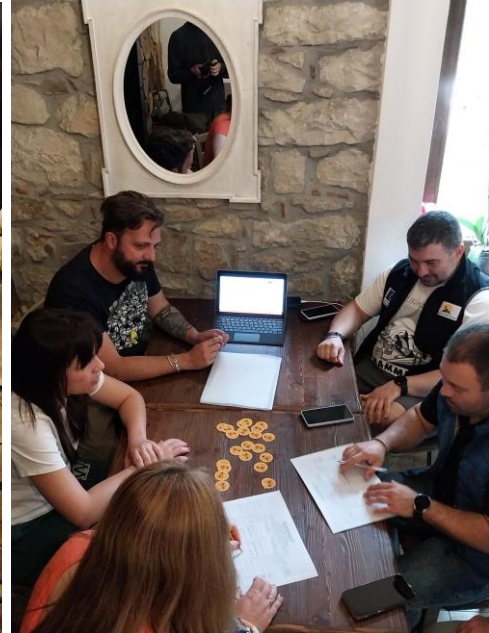

- Project Evaluation:

The meeting concluded with participants filling in the evaluation forms to gather feedback on the meeting itself and the overall project. This feedback would be essential for assessing the project's impact, identifying strengths and weaknesses, and informing future recommendations.

Conclusion:

The final project meeting in Sicily provided an opportunity for all project partners to discuss the project closure, final report, and reflect on the outcomes of the "GoOutThere! Outdoor Challenge" project. The meeting addressed various aspects, including customization of activities, sustainability measures, publishing, and evaluation. The fruitful discussions during the meeting would contribute to the successful completion of the project and pave the way for future endeavors in the field of outdoor challenges and adventure-based learning.
